f) To exchange, on a reciprocal basis, students at Undergraduate levels for limited periods of time for purpose of education.

Both Institutions further agree that detailed terms and conditions that guide each activity identified above will be separately determined and agreed upon by the two institutions. These terms shall include a technical description of the proposed activity, financial arrangements, and person(s) responsible for its implementation, etc.

B. Development and Consulting

Both Institutions agree to help identify and invite faculty members from the other institution to participate in academic development programmes. The terms and conditions for such participation will be worked out by mutual agreement between two institutions without any financial burden.

C. Exchange of Faculty,

Collaboration between faculty from the two institutions. Specifically, institutions will encourage members of their faculties to undertake short visits to, or take up fixed-term visiting assignments at, each other's institution as per the existing norms.

D. Student Exchange

Both Institutions agree that student exchange will be guided by principles. A home institution refers to the institution where a student is a full-time student, and from where he/she is expected to graduate. A host institution refers to an institution that receives a student for a brief period of time to undertake a pre-determined programme of study or higher education.

E. Exchange of Faculty and Technical Material

Both Institutions will exchange information on educational programmes and teaching/learning material and other literature relevant to their educational purposes. Both Institutions further agree to explore ways to share teaching/learning material, and other relevant literature, while respecting each other's intellectual property and other rights.

F. Joint Conferences, workshops and short-term courses

Both Institutions agree to help identify and invite faculty members from the other institution to participate in conferences, workshops and short-term courses. The terms and conditions for such participation will be worked out by mutual agreement between two institutions.

G. Intellectual Property

Both Institutions agree to respect each other's rights to intellectual property. Further, the intellectual property rights that arise as a result of any collaborative research or activity under this MoU will be worked out on a case-by-case basis, and will be consistent with the officially laid down IPR policies of the two institutions.

H. Co-ordination

Each institution shall appoint one member of its teaching faculty to coordinate the programme on its behalf. Further, a coordination committee will periodically review and identify ways to strengthen cooperation between the two institutions.

I. Tenure and Termination

This MoU will take effect from the date it is signed by representatives of the two institutions. It will remain valid for 03 years, and may be continued thereafter after suitable review and agreement. Either institution may terminate the MoU by giving written notice to the other institution six months in advance. Once terminated, neither GDC, Jaggampeta, Kakinada Dt, AP. nor GDC, Rampachodavaram, Alluri Sitaramaraju District, A.P. will be responsible for any losses or otherwise, which the other institutions may suffer. However, Both Institutions will ensure that all activities in progress are allowed to complete successfully.

J. Arbitration Clause

Should there be a dispute relating to any aspect of academic cooperation Both head of the Institutions will jointly resolve the dispute in a spirit of independence, mutual respect, and shared responsibility.

This MoU is signed subject to approval of the respective academic/administrative bodies.
